Home Building Pro's from across Northern BC elected at the 2021 AGM

Prince George, BC: The Canadian Home Builders' Association Northern BC (CHBA-NBC) hosted their Annual General Meeting (AGM) last week. Chaired by President Shay Bulmer, who lives and operates Northern Homecraft in Vanderhoof, Shay remains the board chair for a two-year term. Bulmer is a certified Net-Zero custom home builder and donates his time and expertise as the chair of the Advocacy & Government Relations Committee for the Regional District Bulkley Nechako and serves as a committee member on the provincial CHBA Government Relations Committee.

Joe Hart will serve another term as the CHBA-NBC Past-President. A certified Net-Zero builder and owner of Icon Homes in Quesnel, he is also the Past President of the provincial level of the CHBA (CHBA-BC). Hart lends his time and considerable expertise as a member on the BC Energy Step Code Council representing Northern BC, as Vice-Chair of the CHBA-BC Technical Research Committee (TRC), and is a committee member of both the BC Housing Builder Qualification Advisory Committee and the CHBA National TRC.

Board members of the CHBA-NBC are leaders in the residential construction industry working to shape policy and engage with law-makers and related industry groups, test building science to build energy efficient high-performance homes, raise the bar in the home renovation market and work together to share knowledge and experience. The CHBA is a tri-level, membership driven association serving at the regional, provincial and national level and members donate their time across the country to advocate for housing affordability. Collectively, the residential construction industry is one of Canada's largest employers.

The 2021-2022 Board of Directors elected to represent the CHBA-NBC include:

-Keith Annis	Winton Homes, Prince George
-George Hackle	Windsor Plywood, Prince George
-Angèle Heinrichs	Angèle's Drafting and Design, Fort St. John
-Al Jones	Rona, Prince George
-Sunny Kullar	Kullar Homes Ltd., Prince George
-Martin Lachapelle	Artistic Homes, Prince George
-Brad Manwaring	Man Made Contracting Ltd., Vanderhoof
-Ashley Simmons	Ascension Builders, Pouce Coupe
-Dave Toor	Toor Enterprises, Prince George

The general office of the CHBA-NBC is in Prince George and the association delivers the annual spring Northern BC Home & Garden Show, the fall Parade of Homes, the Housing Awards of Excellence Gala and various industry education events and outreach. The association is a long-time and dedicated supporter of the Prince George Hospice Society and sponsors the annual Dream Home lottery house.
